Dear Senator:

This month's Reader's Digest carries a lead story "Espionage: The Dark Side of Detente."

The allegations are made that the U.S. government is covering up the massive Soviet espionage efforts in this country.

Author John Barron further charges that we could prevent the eavesdropping of our overseas calls, for example, by adopting the British policy of expelling Communists caught in clandestine activities. No replacements are allowed.

Please let me have your stand and ideas on this vital subject.

Cordially,
